

Teach-In Schedule: J20

- 8:00 am :  Imagining Otherwise: Making Education Our Own, Jenny Flaherty (8-10AM, two back-to-back sessions). Sproul Plaza W side, next to fountain (rain: MLK Student Union Building lobby, center)
- 8:30 am :  The Russian Revolution of 1917: Its Legacy 100 Years Later, Dominick Lawton. Sproul Plaza E side, in front of Sproul Hall (rain: MLK Student Union Building lobby, E side)
- 9:00 am :  Free Speech, Hate Speech and the Backlash Against PC, Bay Area Queer Anti-Fascist Network, Alice Phipps. Class of 1914 fountain in front of Kroeber Hall (rain: Wurster Hall Atrium, SW section?)
-  Essay reading: James Baldwin's "Stranger in the Village", Jason Bircea. Hearst Field Annex Courtyard
-  Poetry Reading: German Songs of Protest and Resistance, Simone Stirner. California Hall Lawn next to Valley Life Sciences Building (rain: Dwinelle Hall Lobby inside main entrance, N. end of lobby)
-  Campus Nature Walk, Phoebe Parker-Shames. McCone Hall (front) - meet to depart
-  The politicization of science and how we fight back, David McCleary and Thornton Thompson. Barker Hall lawn (rain: Tolman Hall covered walkway, SW end)
-  "Everyone is an intellectual": the relevance of intellectual work to contemporary politics, Eliot D. Dwinelle Hall, in front of main entrance, level D (rain: Dwinelle Hall Lobby, inside main entrance, S. end of lobby)
- 9:30 am :  Earth Rights = Human Rights, Rachel Thayer and Erika Anderson. McCone Hall, front (rain: McCone Hall, lower level in front of Earth Science Library)
-  The Danger of Fascist Environmentalism, Nick Goedeking. S. end Brown's Lawn, next to Morgan Hall (rain: Tolman Hall covered walkway, NE end)
- 10:00 am :  What is Fascism? How to Know It When You See It, Craig Johnson, Sproul Plaza, E side, in front of Sproul Hall (rain: MLK Student Union Building lobby, E side)
-  We're Not Saving Anyone! The non-profit industrial complex and privatization of public education, A Plot to Take Back the future of education! Em Gillespie. The Eucalyptus Grove (rain: Valley Life Sciences Building, lower level next to T-rex)
-  Community-engaged scholarship: a mandate for the public university, Jun Sunseri. semi-lunar between Kroeber Hall and Boalt Law School (rain: Wurster Hall Atrium, NE section)
-  Facilitation 101: navigating difficult conversations, Margiana Petersen-Rockney. Mulford Hall Courtyard, SE corner (rain: Li Ka Shing Center lobby, E entrance)
-  DESTROY WHAT DESTROYS YOU: performance studies weirdos perform working group to address structural white supremacy across disciplines at uc berkeley. Teach-in will last approx. 1.5 hours. Durham Studio theater.
-  Fighting for Your Rights: navigating the Union grievance process, David McCleary. Mulford Hall SW corner lawn (rain: Li Ka Shing Center lobby, SW downstairs entrance)
-  Recognizing and Addressing Unconscious Bias, Catharine Adams. N. end Brown's Lawn, next to Morgan Hall (rain: Genetics and Plant Biology Building covered area)
-  Fighting against Trump and the capitalist two-party system, Mukund Rathi and Erica West. Sproul Plaza, W side, in front of Golden Bear Cafe (rain: Cesar Chavez Student Center covered area, next to bike co-op)
-  Feet on the Pavement: Social change and the language of parliamentary power, Rodolfo John Alaniz from UC-AFT 1474. Ethnic Studies Library
- 10:30 am :  What can we learn about political resistance from children's books? Shannon Chamberlain. Strawberry Creek amphitheater near Wheeler Hall (rain: MLK Student Union Building lobby, center)
-  Art History Against Fascism--a collaborative lecture by the History of Art dept, Between Doe Library & California Hall, on Sather Road (rain: Free Speech Café covered area)

11:00 am :

-  Real Estate Realpolitik: Donald J. Trump and Landlords in U.S. Urban Politics, Eric Peterson, Sproul Plaza, E side, in front of Sproul Hall (rain: MLK Student Union Building lobby, E side)
-  The Political Science of Trumpism: Exploring Threats to Democracy and International Security, Joe Gardner. Sproul Plaza, E side, lawn W of Barrow Hall (rain: MLK Student Union Building lobby, W side)
-  "Labor and Education in the Trump Era," Collaborative presentation by UC-AFT 1474 and UAW 2865. Ethnic Studies Library.
-  Reading for Resistance Poetry Reading, Comparative Literature Graduate Students and Faculty. California Hall Lawn, next to Valley Life Sciences Building (rain: Dwinelle Hall Lobby, inside main entrance, N. end of lobby)
-  Wild foods and medicines of the UCB Campus, Isaac Marck. McCone Hall, front (rain: McCone Hall, lower level in front of Earth Science Library)
-  The Language of American Life: Science and education under the Trump administration, Rodolfo John Alaniz, 105 Northgate Hall (with or without rain)
-  "One big hoax! Scientific lies and the liars that love them." Daniel Westcott. Barker Hall lawn (rain: Tolman Hall covered walkway, SW end)
-  "Public" Education? Where UC's Money Comes From and Where It's Going, Paco Brito and Marianne Kaletzky. Dwinelle Hall, E entrance near Sather Gate, level D (rain: Dwinelle Hall Lobby, E entrance, S. end of lobby)
-  Story Strategies to Connect with Any Audience, Sara ElShafie. Mulford Hall Courtyard, SE corner (rain: Li Ka Shing Center lobby, E entrance)
-  What Do We Do Now? How to Organize and Participate Effectively, Jake Grumbach. Sproul Plaza, W side, in front of Golden Bear Cafe (rain: Cesar Chavez Student Center covered area, next to bike co-op)
-  Image Ideologies: critical looking as resistance, Lisa Jacobson, Dwinelle Hall, N. side (rain: Free Speech Café covered area)

12:00 pm :

Rally, Sproul Plaza

Thematic Tracks:  Analyzing and Historicizing;  Lit Up;  Earthiness;  Politicalized Science;  (Public?) Education;  Pedagogy & Facilitation;  Taking Action Now;  Labor;  Artful Politics

Accessibility Note: We in the J20 Coalition want to ensure that all can participate in our spaces, teach-ins, rally, and march. All bodies are unique and all bodies have needs that must be met. Tell us what you need to be present and participate in the space by filling out a form (<http://tinyurl.com/BerkeleyJ20Access>) or by emailing Union Steward Julia Havard at julia.havard@gmail.com. Common access needs include: childcare, childrens' activities, dietary needs, scent-free spaces, ASL interpretation, lighting sensitivity, quiet space, non-visual options for visual materials and/or audio describers, wheelchair accessibility, all gender bathrooms. We commit to making this day as accessible as possible for people of all abilities, family structures, and socioeconomic statuses, knowing that collective liberation means that we move together, with no body or mind left behind. Please also let us know if you need transportation from Berkeley to Oakland when we march after the rally.

Teach-in locations may change; see this google map [<http://tinyurl.com/UCBJ20map>], visit <http://tinyurl.com/UCBJ20Schedule>, or pick up a hard copy of the schedule in MCC on J20 for up-to-date locations.

There will be a decompression space in Anthony Hall all morning, including a qt-poc-only section of the building.

From 9-10am, refreshments will be available in the Multicultural Community Center, and from 10-12, refreshments will be available in Anthony Hall.